Students have designs on new Crossrail trains

DESIGN students from Barking and Dagenham College and Redbridge College joined forces to commemorate the launch of the Elizabeth Line.

They created artwork showing the benefits of the new trains which will be on board the carriages and at stations along the route.

Inga Tenyte, of Barking and Dagenham College, and Hayden Shields and Jesse Thraves, of Redbridge College, made three of the five chosen works. They interpreted a feature of the new service through their own artistic styles.

The line launched on June 22, with the first service travelling from Liverpool Street to Shenfield.

It is expected to fully open in December 2019 and pass through 40 stations from Reading and Heathrow in the west, via tunnels in central London, to Abbey Wood and Shenfield in the east.

RED FLAG TO BOY RACERS

By Rudi Abdallah

havering@yellowad.co.uk

BOY racers who make residents' lives a misery have been banned from meeting up and causing mayhem in Barking and Dagenham.

Barking and Dagenham Council has introduced a new Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO), meaning that any driver street racing or performing stunts around the south of the borough, including Thames View and Goresbrook, could face a fine of up to £1,000.

The order also gives police and the council the power to fine those who attend to watch a road racing type event.

It was introduced following incidents in the Choats Road area last year.

Cllr Laila Butt, council cabinet member for enforcement and community safety, said the order was introduced following complaints from residents.

She said: "We have listened to our residents which is why we are showing the red flag to the irresponsible boy racers and petrol heads who are not only jeopardising their own safety but others around them.

"A whole swathe of the borough will be off-limits to these boy racers who think they can use our streets as Silverstone or Brands Hatch."

The order bans speeding, driving in convoy, racing, performing stunts, sounding horns as to cause public nuisance, revving engines and wheel spins.

Jailed for role in killing

TWO men have been sentenced to 27 years in prison for the manslaughter of an Elm Park man who was stabbed 13 times and attacked with a hammer, metal poles and baseball bat.

Police believe Raja Ali, 33, may have met his killers as part of a drug deal on September 25, 2016.

Abubakar Omar-Bana, 26, of Rochford Close, East Ham, was sentenced at the Old Bailey on Monday, July 3, to 15 years after being found guilty of manslaughter.

Jordan Archambie, 20, of Hesketh Road, Forest Gate, was sentenced to 12 years after being found guilty of manslaughter. They received three years for violent disorder to run concurrently to their sentences.

Both were found guilty of manslaughter at the Old Bailey on June 30. They had previously pleaded guilty to violent disorder.

The victim arrived in his car in Stansgate Road, Dagenham, with two friends. A short time later, a Mitsubishi Shogun rammed Mr Ali's car. Seconds later, a Renault Megane pulled up, blocking his car. Six men got out of two cars and attacked Mr Ali.

Mussa Jalo, 21, of Norfolk Road, Dagenham, was given three years' imprisonment after admitting violent disorder. He was cleared of murder and manslaughter.

Daniel Welch, 34, of Winstead Gardens, Dagenham, was given three years after being found guilty of violent disorder. He was cleared of murder and manslaughter.

Zakar Yunus, 22, of Rokeby Street, Stratford, got four years after being found guilty of violent disorder. He was cleared of murder and manslaughter.

PRISON: Daniel Farrugia and Anthony Hurlock

Burglars jailed for crime spree

TWO men have been jailed for five years after admitting burglaries across Brentwood.

Anthony Hurlock, of Blue House Road, Chingford, and Daniel Farrugia, of Hockley Avenue, East Ham, were sentenced at Chelmsford Crown Court on Wednesday, June 28.

Hurlock, 27, pleaded guilty on the day and Farrugia, 26, pleaded guilty on Monday, June 26.

They were arrested in connection with burglaries reported between January 23 and February 7.

Four of the burglaries occurred in one day between 10.30am and 4.15pm. The areas targeted were Brentwood and other parts of Essex and east London. The victims were aged between 25 and 60.

Investigating officer DC Robert Guiney, of Loughton CID, said: "Hurlock and Farrugia are callous individuals who targeted homes while people were out for the day.

"They smashed windows with objects, carried out messy searches of properties and then left with people's possessions.

"During some of the burglaries they posed as workers wearing high visibility jackets and driving a white van.

"In one instance, they attempted to steal from a property but were distracted and claimed to be fixing a leak.

"Although none of the property was ever recovered, I hope these sentences bring some justice to their victims."

● A MOTORCYCLIST is in hospital after a suspect vehicle being pursued by police collided with him in Ilford.
The biker was taken to an east London hospital following the collision in Winston Way at 10.03pm on Monday, July 3.
He is in a stable condition and there were no other reported injuries.
Police tried to stop the car in Adelaide Road, an area known for drug use, but it failed to stop. Officers in a marked car on "blues and twos" engaged in an authorised pursuit but the vehicle evaded them and was lost at 9.59pm.

A short time later it collided with the motorcyclist. No arrests have been made.
Anyone with information about the incident can call police on 101, Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 or tweet @MetCC.
● THE Governor of the Bank of England, Mark Carney, reaffirmed ties with Haven House Children's Hospice, Woodford Green, by planting a paper birch in the grounds.

The hospice is one of the Bank's charities of 2016/17.

● A LOCAL hero who leads a scheme protecting elderly and disabled people in Redbridge from bogus callers has received an award.
Geraldine MacLaine sealed the Chartered Institute for Trading Standards award for her Old Protectors project, a volunteer group which she started. She and her team work with Redbridge Trading Standards and visit residents in their homes, advising them about personal safety and bogus callers.
She said: "I am so pleased to receive this national award as it gives me a chance to publicly thank my small team of volunteers, the Old Protectors, who come in turn with me on our visits."

FIRST TEAM TO FACE SOUTHEND-ON-SEA & EMT CC BLUES TURN HANDS TO A SPOT OF T20

SOUTHEND United's first team squad will turn their hands to a bit of cricket this month.

Blues will take on Southend-on-Sea & EMT Cricket Club in a T20 game at Southchurch Park on Wednesday, July 26, the day after facing Premier League new boys Brighton & Hove Albion in a pre-season friendly at Roots Hall.

Fans can watch the players tested in the shortened version of cricket against the Shepherd Neame League Premier Division side.

The game is due to get under way at 5.30pm and supporters are free to come down and watch.

Southend-on-Sea & Ecko Monarchs & Trojans (SOSEMT) are a local cricket club with their home ground based in Southchurch Park.

Built upon longstanding histories, the start of the decade saw one club formed when the former (Southend-on-Sea) was experiencing hardship in participation and the latter (Ecko Monarchs & Trojans) was looking to secure a future with plans to redevelop the Ecko Sports Ground into residential housing taking shape. Since then it has never looked back.

A renovated clubhouse, following a year in temporary buildings for players at Southend after their building was deemed unfit for purpose, greeted the newly formed club and seven years later, SOSEMT can now boast to holding the lease at both pavilions in the park.

The club fields five adult teams on a Saturday, along with three junior sides and XIs for Evening League, T20 and League Cup competitions.

On the field has also seen unprecedented success for these Seasideers.

This season sees the first team compete in the Premier Division – one below county level – of the Shepard Neame League.

A remarkable achievement given they were in Division Three when the two clubs merged in 2010.

Success has not just been experienced by the first XI with numerous promotions for teams below on Saturdays, back-to-back victories in the 2014 and 2015 Sunday T20 competition with the first coming in dramatic fashion when Joe Sibbons hit a six off the final ball to win the cup.

And only last Sunday, progression to the League Cup semi-final for the first time in its history.

Next week, sees international cricket come to Southend as the club take on Denmark as part of a tour programme in the county.

The Danish side take on a SOSEMT XI before facing Netherlands A and an Essex Development Team.

With plans to secure training facilities in the park, nets take place at Garons Park for Youth teams (U11, U13 and U15) every Thursday at 5pm during the summer months.

The adults train the same evening on the outfield at Southchurch Park starting at 6.15pm.

All new members are more than welcome to join, whether that is putting on whites or simply coming down to watch the sides in action for free.

More information can be found on Facebook: Southend-on-Sea and EMT Cricket Club, on Twitter @sosemtcc and at www.sosemtcc.org.uk.

Non-league round-up

New girls' side at Great Woking

By Brian Jeeves

GREAT Woking Rovers have announced the addition of an under-14 girls' team who will play under the Great Woking Colts Youth Football Club section. Colts' chairman John Galley announced the move following a series of successful meetings with Alex Buckland and Craig Edwards who head up the team's coaching staff.

Great Woking Colts Girls will participate in the Essex Girls County Football League, along with the likes of West Ham United and Leyton Orient. However, the club is keen to see women's football flourish.

Mr Galley said: "This is such a wonderful opportunity now and for the future to bring girls' and ladies' football to our village. It is one of the quickest developing areas in modern day sport. To say I'm excited is an understatement and as a club will give them all the support that they need to grow, develop and enjoy their football."

Mr Buckland added: "This will hopefully be the first of many Great Woking Colts girls' teams at the club and the aim is to invest and make football accessible for all abilities and ages alike and ultimately within time bring ladies football back to the village.

"Myself and Craig are delighted to be part of what we believe will be the biggest football set-up for girls in the area in the next five years. The future's bright, the future's green and white."

Mr Edwards is confident that the girls could be a successful addition to the youth outfit, saying: "The girls come from around the Southend-on-Sea area. They are a good mixture of both current year 7 and year 8 school years, progressing to year 8 and 9 next season."

Great Woking Colts Girls will play their home fixtures at Cupids Country Club. For more information contact Alex Buckland on 07734 385050 or email: bucklandnew@aol.com or gwccltschairman@outlook.com

National League promotion hopefuls Dagenham & Redbridge have appointed Junior Lewis as the club's new assistant manager. Lewis, played for player Gillingham, Hull, Brentford MK Dons, Stevenage and Leicester City, links up with the Victoria Road outfit having most recently served in a similar role at Boreham Wood. The 43-year-old has also worked on the coaching staff at Leeds United.

National League South club Chelmsford City have signed goalkeeper Sam Beasant and midfielder Jim Stephenson ahead of the 2017/18 season. Beasant, son of ex-Wimbledon, Newcastle United and Chelsea keeper Dave, appeared 28 times for Braintree Town during the last campaign. Previously, he had spells with Maidenhead United, Woking, Stevenage and Cambridge United, after beginning his career with Cypriot club Olympiakos Nicosia.

Former Dover Athletic man Stephenson joins the Claret after a loan spell with Southport. He represented Histon, Luton Town, Dartford (loan) and Aldershot Town during a seven-year career.

City said that defender Bagasan Graham and goalkeeper Ross Fitzsimons have left the club.

Bostik North outfit Canvey Island have signed midfielder Frankie Merrifield and winger Ryan Charles. Merrifield linked up with the Park Lane club on a dual-registration from Chelmsford City in December 2016 but has made his move to the Gulls permanent after 21 appearances and scoring six times in the last campaign. Charles, a product of the Ipswich Town Academy, initially joined Needham Market in 2011, before two stints with Witham either side of a spell at Stanway Rovers.

Essex Senior League outfit, Basildon United, have signed Lewis Moore, Billy Holmes and Matt Brinklow. The central midfielders arrive at Gardiners Close from National League newcomers Ebbsfleet United and Thurrock respectively, while attacking midfielder Brinklow links up with the Bees from Hullbridge Sports.

Ogbonna inks new contract and hails West Ham fans

Football

ANGELO Ogbonna says West Ham United's fans will inspire him to start the new Premier League season strongly.

The Italy international celebrated his return to action after successful knee surgery by signing a new long-term contract with the club.

As Ogbonna and the Hammers squad prepare to return for pre-season training, the No21 says he is already looking forward to running out in front of the Claret and Blue Army to face Manchester United at Old Trafford on Saturday, August 12.

He told the club website this week: "The fans are really important for us. I cannot compare our fans with other fans because we are West Ham. We are more than a club and we are a family.

"For us, it's important that we have people behind us. It makes things much better for us."

Ogbonna had an operation to rectify a long-standing knee issue in January, before returning for the final day win at Burnley.

Having played just one Premier League game in six months, the 29-year-old is excited at the prospect of returning to action against Jose Mourinho's side.

The former Juventus star has faced the Red Devils seven times since his arrival in east London in summer 2015, most notably when he started the memorable 3-2 victory in the final game at the Boleyn Ground in May last year.

Ogbonna and the Hammers have not tasted success in any of the other six meetings – a record he is determined to improve next month.

The centre-half, who assumed hero status after scoring a last-gasp FA Cup winner against Liverpool at the Boleyn in February 2016, said: "I'm very excited for the start of the season.

"I cannot wait for the Manchester United game, not just me but also our whole team.

"Everyone wants to show themselves but we have to be focused and prepare for that game by working hard in pre-season."

The Cassino-born star has won 21 and lost just 13 of the 48 Premier League matches he has played for West Ham.

O's bolster defensive ranks with Caprice signing

ORIENT signed defender Jake Caprice this week.

The 24-year-old has agreed a two-year deal with the O's, and arrives at the Matchroom Stadium after leaving National League side Woking.

Having started out in the youth ranks at Crystal Palace, Caprice signed his first professional contract with the Eagles in 2011, though was unable to make the breakthrough there and signed for Blackpool a year later.

The defender was unable to make his mark at Bloomfield Road however, as he found his opportunities limited before making his professional debut on loan at Dagenham & Redbridge in December 2012.

The 2013-14 campaign saw the defender head out on loan, first to Scottish side St Mirren before ending the season at Tamworth.

Following two seasons at Blackpool, Caprice completed a switch to Lincoln City in August 2014, and became a consistent figure for the Imps as he racked up a 37 appearances in 2014-15.

After impressing during that season at Sincil Bank, he found himself on the move again by agreeing a pre-contract with Woking ahead of the 2015-16 campaign.

Handed the number two shirt, the pacey fullback wasted little time in making the right back spot his own, and during two seasons with the Cards made 89 appearances.
